Prospects For World Peace Promising: Ike

Addresses Council Of Catholic Women

BOSTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said Monday that despite Russian provocation, "the specter of war looms less threateningly" now than in years.

He mentioned specifically, as an instance of provocation, destruction of a U.S. Air Force plane by two Russian planes Sunday near Japan.

The President deplored from the prepared text of his speech before the 27th meeting of the National Council of Catholic Women to mention the shooting down of the photomapping plane.

"Peace is the problem of the American people," he said.

"The fathers and mothers of America," he added, "rejoice that the possibility of permanent peace is more promising than in any time in recent years."

"They are heartened, too," he said, "by the building of strength where there was weakness throughout the Pacific, despite such instances of provocation as that which occurred yesterday off the coast of Japan."

"All of us are profoundly thankful that the terrible specter of war was less threateningly over all mankind."

To convert "this uneasy global armistice to a lasting peace," he said, is "the longing of the parents of American children."

"To attain this enduring peace while living in freedom must ever be the overriding goal of our American foreign policy."

The President spoke before a sunny, autumn afternoon. Earlier, the chilling autopsy findings on Marilyn's beaten body finally were disposed of. Ahern, the state's second witness, was excused just before the trial recessed overnight.

His wife, Nancy, follows him to the witness stand tomorrow.

Democrats To Select New Chairman Dec. 4

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wideranging speculation on the choice of a new Democratic National Committee chairman, probably to be selected Dec. 4 in New Orleans, seemed Monday to be narrowing to three names.

They are Michael V. DiSalle of Toledo, Paul Butler of Indiana and as a possible dark horse, Sen. Earle C. Clements of Kentucky.

But at least four other names were heard in party gossip. It appeared the field would be wide open when the committee assembles for the New Orleans "victory dinner" at which Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell will hand in his resignation.

Friend Describes Sheppard As Good, Decent Fellow

CLEVELAND (AP) — One of his best friends Monday described Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard as "a very straightforward fellow—a good decent fellow."

The description came from Donald J. Ahern, a state witness, who described the last night on earth of Marilyn Sheppard, 31-year-old wife of the octogenarian. The evening began quietly with a home cooked meal and neighborly gossip. It ended with Marilyn's murder, for which Dr. Sheppard is on trial.

Reviewing Ahern's friendship with Sheppard, Defense Atty. William J. Corrigan asked on cross examination:

"Did you ever see him lose his temper?"

"No, sir; I did not," replied the witness, a tall, rather gaunt man who runs a transportation service and an odor removing business.

"During the time you knew Sam Sheppard did you have an opportunity to determine what kind of a man he was?"

"I felt Sam was always a very straightforward fellow," Ahern replied. "He was my friend."

"He was a good, decent fellow, wasn't he?" Corrigan demanded.

"Yes," replied Ahern.

Ahern testified throughout a sunny, autumn afternoon. Earlier, the chilling autopsy findings on Marilyn's beaten body finally were disposed of. Ahern, the state's second witness, was excused just before the trial recessed overnight.

His wife, Nancy, follows him to the witness stand tomorrow.

Bury Slain Girl As Alleged Slayer Pleads Innocent

NORWOOD, Mass. (AP) — Geraldine Anne, 15, was buried in Highland Cemetery Monday while Peter Makarewicz, her 15-year-old neighbor and alleged slayer, pleaded innocent to a charge he strangled her Thursday night in a darkened garage.

The mandatory plea of innocent was recorded in nearby Dedham District Court.

The mothers of both the boy and girl were near collapse.

Mrs. Mary Anne flung herself on her daughter's casket just as a priest was about to read committal prayers.

Mrs. Adrienne Makarewicz sobbed quietly and continuously during her son's arraignment in the crowded courtroom.

The case was continued until next Monday on request of Norfolk County Dist. Atty. Myron N. Lane.

The young defendant was returned, without bail, to the same cell where he has been since his arrest Saturday.

Earlier Lane said the boy signed a statement that he hid in the garage—near both families' homes which are separated only by a vacant lot—until the girl returned from a double date about 10 p.m. Thursday and called her as she walked toward home.

The newspaper Pravda published a joint statement of the Communist party Central Committee and the Council of Ministers (government) reporting on results of the consumer goods campaign launched a year ago in line with the stated policy of Premier Georgi Malenkov's government to raise Soviet living standards.

The indication is that the Soviet government is deeply disappointed with the result.

The announcement showed that Soviet agriculture failed by almost three million head to meet the quota of increased cattle population. Khrushchev has said the cattle population was one of the country's most pressing problems.

ITALIAN TOWN ENDS RED RULE ROME (AP) — Christian Democrats won local elections at Villasalto Monday, ending eight years of Communist administration in that Sardinian town.

Villasalto, town of 2,300, has been a Red stronghold since the end of the war. Critten went away. Machow, 19, of Portland, Ore., was picked up by police because he was riding a bicycle in the small hours of the morning and had no local address.

He was placed in a cell while police checked on him. His record was clear—but he gave officers a bad moment nevertheless.

"I can get out of here," he said cheerily to Lt. Robert Critten.

"Go ahead," said the amused officer. "Show me."

Critten went away. Machow, 19, of Portland, Ore., was picked up by police because he was riding a bicycle in the small hours of the morning and had no local address.

The embarrassed officer said the lock was broken. He phoned Machow's family in Portland. They're coming for him.

"It's almost 11 o'clock on a beautiful Sunday morning. Some people are going to church now. In a small room at 2135 Arapahoe an ambulance attendant lowers his stethoscope to a small boy on the bed. The mother screams, 'My boy! Doctor, my boy! Don't let him die!'

"Police officers in the room are stone-faced. The flash from my camera fills the room. A small boy plays on the floor, bewildered stop.

President Names Harlan, Justice Of U.S. Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Monday picked U.S. Circuit Judge John Marshall Harlan of New York to be an associate justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Harlan would succeed the late Justice Robert Jackson.

The White House announced the President will send the nomination to the Senate Tuesday, and at the same time will nominate Joseph Campbell, now a member of the Atomic Energy Commission, to be comptroller general.

The comptroller general's office has been vacant since Lindsay Warren retired last spring because of ill health.

The comptroller general is the watchdog for Congress over federal spending. The post pays $17,500 a year.

Both Harlan and Campbell are Republicans, the White House said.

Harlan, 55, whose home is in New York City, now is a judge in the U.S. Court of Appeals which has jurisdiction over Vermont, Connecticut and New York.

Harlan was born in Chicago May 20, 1899. He is a graduate of Princeton, and also received jurisprudence degree from Oxford University in England and a law degree from the New York Law School.

The high court post pays $25,000 a year.

Harlan has been serving as U.S. Circuit judge since March 4, 1954—his only experience on the bench. He was appointed to the circuit court by Eisenhower.

Other names which have bobbed up here include:

Leslie Biffle, former secretary of the Senate and close friend of Truman; James A. Finnegan, president of the Philadelphia City Council; Oscar Chapman, former secretary of the Interior; and Robert Butler of St. Paul, a big campaign contributor and former ambassador to Australia and Cuba.

Both the party's biggest figures, Stevenson and Truman, are said to be keeping hands strictly off the contest. Normally the committee would defer, in picking a chairman to the wish of an incumbent president or to the party's presidential nominee. Now their is neither incumbent nor nominee at the moment.

Feith's group commander, Col. Albert Welsh of Dalton City, Ill., gave newsmen the impression he may have been personally disappointed that the RB29 did not shoot back but emphasized that was a matter for Feith to decide.

He said he "would compliment before I would criticize" Feith.

Then he added that any MiGs who might try it again would "get a different reception."

Both Capt. Feith and his 24-year-old co-pilot, Lt. David N. Oliver, of Corvallis, Ore., said the two bullet-spitting MiG jets screamed inside Japan's three mile limit on the last of four firing passes.

They said the MiGs approached within two to three miles of Nagafusa on the coast of Hokkaido's Nemuro Peninsula.

All 10 survivors, red-eyed and haggard, plotted their course to the downed plane, said the two bullet-spitting MiG jets screamed inside Japan's three mile limit on the last of four firing passes.

SPRINGFIELD VOTES FOR NEW SCHOOLS

(From The Bloomington Pantagraph)

Five years ago the voters of Springfield turned down a school building program by a vote of two to one. But they learned, as every community must, that a negative vote does not solve the problem of where to house the increasing numbers of school children.

Tuesday the voters had to face the issue again. This time they voted two to one to approve a bond issue of approximately $5 million dollars. With the money the community is to construct three junior high schools, two elementary schools and additions to five existing schools.

Bloomington faces a similar problem. A program has been formulated calling for two junior high schools, a new elementary school, an addition to Oakland and acquisition of sites for future schools while suitable land is still available. This is to meet needs for the next five years.

Citizens will have opportunity to vote on the building issue, which is expected to cost a little more than $3 million dollars, early in December. The added facilities are needed badly. Bloomington should take encouragement from Springfield's action and approve this program.

Editor's Note: Similar school problems must be faced in the Jacksonville district, particularly with respect to the junior high school. Perhaps Jacksonville, too, should be spurred on by Springfield's action.)

Fairy Tales Get a Boost for Magical Age of Childhood

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Two days after the Christmas I was eight years old, a lovely thing happened to me—I found a still-unopened gift. It was a book, and reading it, I came upon one of those sentences that sinks unforgettable into the heart of childhood: "In fact, the fairies had turned Tom into a water baby."

The book, which was "Water Babies," of course, told me this as casually as I had been told that Alice walked through the Looking Glass, and that Pinocchio's wooden fingers snatched the wig off our Geppetto.

Its author, like the writers of all great children's books, knew that Nature suspends her laws for them as she does for saints.

So when I come upon a "juvenile" book that treats miracles as commonplace, I rejoice for childhood. Such a book is the just-published "Beyond the Pawpaw Trees" by a young man named Palmer Brown. It is a lovely book. And I envy the child who will climb up on Anna Leavine's desert mirage to learn the secret of its musical fountain.

Real fairy tales are rare in this world of ours so anxious to face "reality." We have, I think, some idea that they are psychologically unwholesome for children. We are scared to encourage wonder in what we believe does not exist—and thus prefer to give them books on the wonders of Boulder Dam and the auto industry.

As a consequence of this refusal to feed children's imagination with imagination, it is starved in many American youngsters.

This, if I may say so, seems psychologically unwholesome. For Susan's imagination, as part of her nature, cannot be denied without making trouble. If it is starved in childhood, it can later become ravenous.

Thus, in the very country that frowns on real fairy tales for youngsters, we have an adolescent population that adores the false kind. Our teen-agers can't gobble up enough of the bad fairy tales told them by second-rate movies, juke boxes and love pulp magazines.

So I'm for magic in the magical age of childhood.

For encouraging that magical age to seek its wonders in gardens of talking flowers, in the Brownie who lives with the mole in the garden, in the empty chrysalis swaying from the bush at the kitchen window, or in the wondrous adventures little Anna found out past the grove of Pawpaws.

Boyle's Column

BY HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK P—It has been 462 years since Christopher Columbus discovered America and still there is no great national monument to him.

Now, for that matter, has the federal government erected a memorial to Amelia Earhart Bloomer, who pioneered in freeing women by appearing in public wearing bloomers?

No, but anyone stepped forward to raise funds to put a plaque on the marketplace of the man who brought women an even greater prominence by inventing "bastes."

It's an kind of sad. For a young people who are fast growing midgetized we are mighty forgetful.

Our storied past is crowded with colorful, famous figures, but we do little to keep alive the atmosphere of the times they lived in.

We put down their names to make office buildings. We razed the schools they attended to make a parking lot. Nothing is left of our heroes and rapscallions but a printed memory.

In Europe it's the other way around. A tourist can't walk 50 steps in any direction without bumping into a historic landmark—a cathedral where kings were crowned, an alleyway unchanged since Jack the Ripper lurked there.

There has been some improvement in this country in recent years. But we are still pretty well limited to Civil War battlefields, statues of half-forgotten generals and politicians that serve chiefly as flight decks for pigeons and guest houses with signs bragging that "Washington slept here."

Ask the average guy to name five famous American historical monuments. He'll probably name the Statue of Liberty, the Washington Monument, the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials. Then he'd be stumped unless you let him include Mae West or Sophie Tucker.

In this matter of keeping the flavor of the past alive, we have to take a back seat to our British cousins.

The British not only preserve Westminster Abbey and their cathedral. The government also protects against change or destruction 5,000 pubs, including one in which the first Queen Elizabeth quaffed nutbrown ale and another in which Henry V took a farewell pint before hopping the channel ferry to France and the Battle of Agincourt.

Americans are loathe to make monuments of their saloons, even though some of modern society's bluest blood has been shed in them in recent years, and despite the fact George Washington made his farewell address to his officers in a tavern. But, after all these years doesn't the distillery that produced Gen. U. S. Grant perhaps deserve a memorial marker? Any Southerner will confirm that it was only bottle courage that gave Grant the nerve to take on the peerless Robert E. Lee.

It was his style that got him into trouble. His problem is Can he change it?

He made his reputation as a Communist hunter. He was a comparative unknown outside Wisconsin for the first four years after his election to the Senate in 1946.

When he hit up on the theme of Red-dom in government in 1950, he began to swing his way out of obscurity.

He kept his name in the headlines, by attack, attack, attack.

He became the recognized spokesman for his party, closing ranks and forget the fancy footwork.

The Wisconsin Republican has reached a point where he may have to change his style or wind up that on his political back.

Rooftop Sixth Grade Holds Surprise Party

ROOFTOP — Sandra Strowmatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Strowmatt, east of Roofhouse, was surprised with a farewell party during the recreation period Friday afternoon. A committee of children of Mrs. Ross Manning's sixth grade planned the affair and furnished the refreshments of popcorn balls, ice cream bars, cupcakes and cookies. The committee was comprised of Janice Hell, Mary Broche, Anna Lawson,

Lazaar

The Philatelic Class of the Baptist church will hold a bazaar and food sale Saturday, Nov. 13, at the Wolfe's Store, north side of the square. The Amana class of the same church will have a booth at the sale. Amana members having articles or food to donate may them call for by notifying Mrs. Thomas Meckley.

Chili Supper

The public is reminded that the Deltas are sponsoring a chili supper to be held in the school cafeteria Thursday, Nov. 11. The proceeds will be from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. The proceeds from this supper will be used for a school project. Home-made chili pie and coffee will comprise the menu.

To Attend Chili Supper

The Delta Philatelic class of the Baptist church will attend in a group at 6:30 p.m. the chili supper given by the Deltas instead of having the regular potluck supper at the church. The class business meeting will be held in the fellowship room of the church after the group returns from the supper.

Rummage Sale

The American Legion and Auxiliary will hold a rummage sale at the Legion Home, West Palm Street, Saturday, Nov. 13. Anyone having rummage to be picked up, call 443.

The American Legion Auxiliary Post 373 will have a regular meeting and potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 8. There will be initiation of new members. The president is Ruby Dennis.

Churches

The monthly fellowship meeting of the First Baptist church will be held Wednesday evening. The supper, which will be held at 6:45, will be followed by the business session at 8:00 o'clock.

The W.S.C.S. of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Walter Rick, Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 9, at 2:30.

The Mission Circle of the First Baptist church will meet at the church Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m.

Personals

Mrs. Charlie Bennett and her house guest, Mrs. Emma Carlton Godfrey, visited in the home of Mrs. Effie McPherson, White Hall, Thursday. On Sunday, Mrs. Emma Carlton returned to the home of her son, Orville Carlton, Godfrey, where she resides at present. Accompanying her were her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Log and Mrs. Jonath Hopkins, who visited in the Carlton home for the day.

Capt. and Mrs. Byron E. Battrell have gone to Los Angeles, Calif., where he will be stationed as auditor general D. C. S. C. headquarters, Western District, the same position he held in Alaska until last month. He will have charge of ten western states as auditor general in the U.S. Air Force.

Chi Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma society, will hold a dinner meeting at the Mabel Ridings tea room in Carrollton, Friday night, at six o'clock with the following house members serving as hostesses: Miss Mabel Hopkins, Mrs. W. A. Wilkinson, Mrs. Floyd Sawyer. Members unable to attend are requested to notify Mrs. Sawyer by Wednesday.

Prices For Feed
Cattle At Best
Level In Year

NATIONAL STOCK YARDS, Ill.—A continued strong demand for fed cattle advanced quotations to the best level of the year, according to the Producers Live Stock Marketing Association. Lambs also strengthened, and hogs received a dependable outlet. Improved selling in the dressed product was a constructive factor in trading.

Slaughter steer and heifer cattle pushed forward 50¢ to $1 cwt. under aggressive buying except for the lower grades, which were in seasonally large supply and proved burdensome for the demand. Two lots of high choice and prime steers from Macoupin county, Ill., at $27.50 cwt. equaled the highest price Oct. 27, 1953. Most choice steers brought $24 to $26.50, followed by commercial and good kinds at $19 to $23.50.

Stocker and feeder cattle again received a good country demand and reflected a strong undertone; cows closed steady to 50¢ lower, veal calves steady to $1 off, and slaughter calves down $1 to $2.

Hogs maintained a relatively good level in the face of the heaviest receipts in 21 months. After five days of trading barrows and gilts 180 lbs. down figured 10¢ to 25¢ improved; stronger weights 10 to 25¢ lower and packing sows steady to 25¢ up. The closing top on hogs was $19.60 paid for select light weights around 200 lbs. or under, which are now in a premium position.

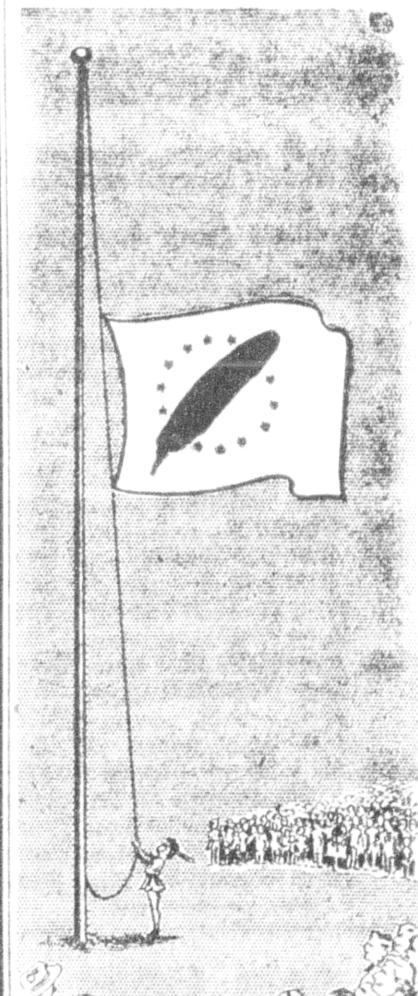

Lambs were in active demand until late when some weakness developed, particularly on kinds lacking finish. Values closed steady to 50¢ higher on lambs, and unchanged on aged sheep. The run was predominantly good to prime lambs that sold from $19 to $21, top $21 paid early and late for several hundred head of woolly offerings. The top for shorn lambs rested at $20.50.

Good to prime steer and heifer beef at Chicago closed 1 to 2¢ or more a pound higher; veal and calf firm; lamb 1 to 2¢ higher; pork loin fully 2¢ improved.

Never before in regular

grade gasoline

New Shell Gasoline contains TCP— gives performance never before possible with regular grade fuel

If the engine of your car was designed to operate on regular grade fuels, you can now take advantage of the remarkable gasoline additive, TCP*, first introduced in Shell Premium Gasoline exclusively:

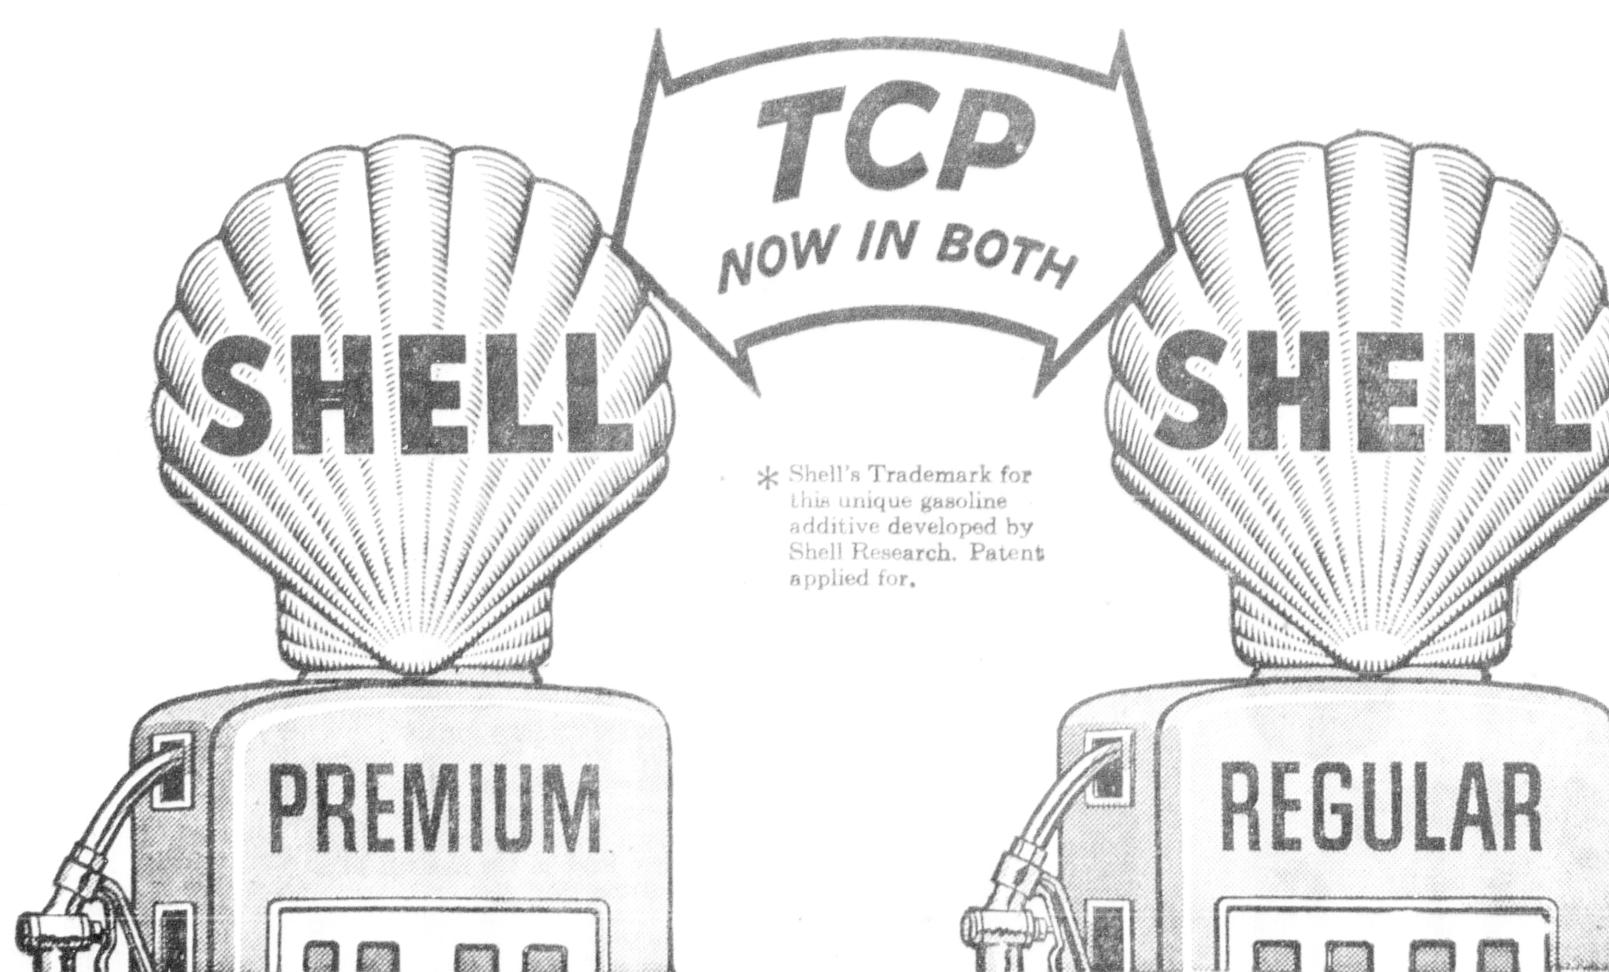

New Shell Gasoline (regular grade) with TCP benefits engine performance in two ways. First, by "fireproofing" combustion chamber deposits, it effectively controls pre-ignition. Second, by changing the deposits on the spark plugs to non-conductors of electricity, TCP additive stops misfiring. Each plug fires as it should, preventing fuel waste.

Now gives performance never before possible with regular grade fuel

By correcting these engine troubles, Shell Gasoline with TCP gives an increase in acceleration, in smoothness of engine operation and in mileage.

Because engine deposits form constantly, continued use of Shell Gasoline (regular grade) with TCP is essential to retain its benefits. Now at all Shell Dealers.

New York Stock Market

WEATHER. RECEIPTS
PUT SKIDS ON BEAN,
CORN, RYE PRICES

By WILLIAM FERRIS

NEW YORK (P)—The stock market continued its headlong drive Monday with a rally that carried it up to new 25-year peaks.

So intense was the forward movement that twice during the day the ticker had to fall behind in reporting the progress of trading on the floor of the New York stock exchange.

Gains of $1 to $15 points were common in key sections of the list. U.S. Gypsum shot ahead $15 points at 225.

Most sections joined in the upward swing. The steels, motors, rubbers, building materials and railroads were strong relatively early in the day. Late in session the aircrafts suddenly came to life and advanced strongly, and renewed buying entered the railroad department.

Mail order houses, farm implements, motion pictures and distillers were neglected.

Last week the market zoomed ahead on the heels of the election, and the week as a whole showed the best progress of the past 16 years.

Over the weekend, brokers advised buying in a broad group of stocks. Demand from the general public, from institutions and from traders was concentrated in some issues that had only a small floating supply of stock available for immediate sale. That forced prices to jump ahead smartly.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced $1.50 at 134.30.

Last Thursday the market established a new 25-year high, and Monday's peak topped that. It was the best since Oct. 17, 1929.

The industrial component of the average was up $1.80 at a new high of $192.60; the railroads gained $2.20 at a new high of $104.90, and utilities were up 10 cents at $64.60.

Volume came to 3,180,000 shares, one of the largest totals of the year. That compares with 2,950,600 shares traded Friday when the market declined slightly on average.

The American Stock Exchange enjoyed especially heavy trading with prices rising. The total was 950,000 shares as compared with 860,000 traded Friday.

New York Bond Market

NEW YORK (P)—The corporate bond market climbed Monday with railroads in the lead.

"Big Board" volume spurred to $4,370,000 per value from $3,850,000 Friday and $2,590,000 a week ago. Railroads found the most support, though there were exceptions.

Utilities and industrials were steady. Convertibles improved.

U. S. government bonds were generally lower, but the 30-year 3½ firmed in late dealings.

Stalled Car Hit By Train; Driver Safe

Uproar Marks Start Of McCarthy Censure Session

On the Senate floor after the session ended, McCarthy showed the old and new versions to reporters.

The principal change was in a passage which argues that the Senate is a continuing body—that a senator can be censured in one Congress for something he did in a previous Congress. McCarthy didn't like this, but he argued the change in wording was not a major alteration.

With this first row out of the way, the Senate agreed to devote Tuesday's session to eulogizing members who have died recently and then to come to grips with the censure question Wednesday.

Major Jos. Herald Reported Missing In Plane Crash

Realizing that the train was almost at the crossing, Turner retreated to the side of the track before the collision.

The train ground to a halt within a length of 32 cars from the crossing, according to one observer. The extra train was in charge of Engineer W. L. Spies of Springfield and Conductor W. C. Hudson of Decatur.

Capt. Albert Spreen and Patrolman Russell Armstrong went to the crossing at the same time the fire department was called.

Pipe Line Crews Go Into Third Mile As Big Line Progresses

Crews engaged in laying Jacksonville's water transmission line from the Illinois river are now working on the third mile of the big project, the city council was informed last night by Casler & Stapleton, consulting engineers, and Mayor Ernest L. Hoogland.

Although the detailed report of the engineers covered up to Wednesday night, Nov. 3, when 1.90 miles of pipe had been tucked away in the earth, Mayor Hoogland announced that the two mile mark had been passed since that time despite an interruption in work due to a walkout by operating engineers.

The report by the consulting engineers said that work on the pipe line started again yesterday. The pipe laying crews were idle three days last week.

The Torsion Construction Company of Kansas City, Mo., contractor for laying the pipe, is working two crews. Crew "A" started on the west side of H. L. Vortman's property near Chapin and has laid pipe east across property belonging to A. H. Nobis, Emma Little, Alfred Rahe, and is now working on land belonging to John Arns.

Crew "B" started on land belonging to Myra Perhix, moved yesterday across property owned by Walter Bobbitt, and is now working on property owned by Arthur French.

Much Pipe Delivered

The consulting engineer's report showed that Price Brothers of Dayton, Ohio, which has the contract for furnishing pre-stressed concrete pipe has delivered up to Saturday, Nov. 6, 23,134 linear feet or 4.39 miles of pipe, which is strung out along the pipe line route.

"This portion of the work is progressing very satisfactorily," the engineers announced.

The Banney Company of Dayton, Ohio, which has the contract for the horizontal water collector near Naples, is in the process of sinking the easement 56 linear feet have been sunk, leaving about 42 feet to be sunk. This portion of the contract also is proceeding well according to the engineer.

Alderman Chumley told the council that a large number of citizens probably about 200 visited the site of the well near the Illinois river Sunday.

Piano selections were played by Mrs. Harold Wessler.

The Royal Neighbors of Arenzville attended the services in a group.

The flowers were attended by Mrs. Carroll Wood, Mrs. Arthur Neiman, Mrs. Eugene Delaney and Mrs. Faye Hierman.

The pallbearers were Wayne Wood, Carroll Wood, Troy Wood, Arthur Neiman, Gordon Neiman and Eugene Delaney.

Interment was in the Arenzville cemetery.

Craven Rites Held In Arenzville Monday Afternoon

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Craven were held at 2:30 p.m. Monday at the Arenzville Presbyterian church with Dr. Ernest G. Hildner officiating.

Howard Phillips read a letter from Jennie M. Gibson, secretary of the Morgan County Board of Health, informing the council that at a meeting Nov. 2 the board voted to go on record as favoring the addition of sodium fluoride to the water supply of Jacksonville as a means of preventing dental decay.

W. O. Randall, area manager of the Illinois Telephone Company which is erecting a new building at Beecher avenue and Dunlap Court, appeared before the council with a request that the curb adjacent to the new building be set back five feet. His request was granted on motions by Aldermen Merriman and May, with an agreement that the revision of the curbside be made under the supervision of the highway department.

A report of receipts of his office for October was read by City Clerk Phillips. The receipts totaled $4,060.32. Some of the larger items of revenue were $1,600.00 in cigarette taxes; $675.14 in paving operations; $627.46 from rental of property owned by the city, and $315 from building permits.

13 Police Cases

Chief of Police Ike Flynn reported an unusually large number of cases for October, a total of 123. One hundred and seven of these were city cases; 16 were state cases. Fines for the month totaled $660.

The sum of $6,000 was shifted from the motor vehicle parking system revenue fund to the general fund, in a resolution adopted on motion of Alderman Rowe, seconded by Alderman May.

The 1952 Buick driven by Mrs. Kenneth Stapleton, 1035 South East street, was hit in the rear, and the 1953 Buick that Dr. Thomas Auner, 8 South Crescent Drive, was driving was damaged on the front left fender.

Capt. Spreen issued a ticket charging Warren M. Black, 504 Sandusky, who was driving a 1955 Chevrolet, with reckless driving.

3 Cars Collide At Intersection

At 7:08 p.m. Monday three cars were involved in an accident at the corner of West College avenue and South Church street. No one was injured in the accident, but there was extensive damage to the three cars.

The 1952 Buick driven by Mrs. Kenneth Stapleton, 1035 South East street was hit in the rear, and the 1953 Buick that Dr. Thomas Auner, 8 South Crescent Drive, was driving was damaged on the front left fender.

Capt. Spreen issued a ticket charging Warren M. Black, 504 Sandusky, who was driving a 1955 Chevrolet, with reckless driving.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Eugene Smock of Murphysboro are parents of a son born at St. John's Hospital Springfield, Illinois, Sunday, November 7, 1954.

A third resolution involving a transfer of funds passed on motion by Alderman May and Allen, moved $10,000 from the motor vehicle liability fund for the severel de-lition dump truck for the severel de-general fund, for the purpose of paying salaries of police in the amount of 30 per cent, and for the purpose of paying costs of street or alley repairs and improvements in the amount of 65 per cent.

Bringing up matters that have come to attention of the highway committee, Alderman Kelly recommended that parking be prohibited on the west side of South Fayette street between Chambers and Anna streets. A resolution to this effect was adopted on motion by Alderman Merriman and Allen.

Traffic Survey Wednesday

Alderman Kelly announced that a traffic survey will be taken Wednesday and Saturday of this week by the Junior Chamber of Commerce with the assistance of the police department. Expense of the survey will be met by the Chamber of Commerce. Statistics compiled by the volunteers will be submitted to a Chicago company for study and report with an eye toward solving traffic problems.

Kelly said Lake Jacksonville yesterday was 14 feet, 10 and three-fourths inches below the spillway showing a three-fourths inch loss during the past week.

The council received an application by Howard Schneider for a water connection at his property east of the city on payment of the $360 fee. An agreement was read by City Attorney Bellotti, after which the council passed a resolution to enter into a contract with Schneider for water, the motions being supported by Aldermen Allen and Chumley.

UNPACK VALUABLE ART EXHIBIT

OPEN TO PUBLIC THROUGH NOV. 12

Cub Scouts To Attend Program At Springfield

By Henry E. Busche

The annual fall orchestra concert was presented Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Jacksonville High School Auditorium before an audience of about 350 people. This program marks the beginning of three Sunday afternoon, November 14, in full years of string instruction in the local public schools. Norman Werner, who started these activities, then directed the concert.

The program got off to a good start by the playing of several numbers by the all string junior high school orchestra of 40 pieces. One was immediately impressed by the firmness of the tone which was displayed by this group.

Following these numbers a high class vocal solo composed of Choral, vocal, Sandra Benjamen, Norma Jean Gibbs, Sharon Dowdall, to be solds, Harlan Jordon, John Hill and Bob Hazlewood, sang "Blue Moon" by Rodgers and Hart. This group showed very careful parting by Donald Lord, the high school choral instructor. The number was definitely received by the audience with enthusiasm.

This will be primarily a "showing" and "tryout" event for Cubmasters, assistants, Den Mothers, pack committee members, and Cub Scout leaders.

A presentation of the new Cub Scout literature, and an explanation of the newly instituted Webelos Den.

There will be a "showing" and "tryout" event for Cubmasters, assistants, Den Mothers, pack committee members, and Cub Scout leaders.

After being informed of the accident a sister, Miss Elsie McAlpine, resident of this city, chartered a plane at the Jacksonville Municipal Airport for Chicago. She arrived soon after Mrs. McAlpine passed away.

The deceased was born in this city the daughter of the late John and Rose Carroll Kennedy. She attended parochial schools and graduated from Routh high school. She continued her education at MacMurray College majoring in music. After her graduation from College she taught voice in this city. Her marriage to Mr. McAlpine was in Chicago June 11, 1938. She was quite active in the Chicago MacMurray Alumni club.

Surviving are her husband and two sisters, Miss Elsie Kennedy, recently of this city, now a resident of Endicott, California. She was a member of Our Saviour's church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at St. Francis De Sales Catholic church in Chicago with burial in that city. The family home is located at 7940 Kimball street in Chicago. The family requests no flowers, please.

JHS Ensemble Plays

Then Mr. Werner presented his High School String Ensemble in a couple of current popular numbers, "Tenderly" by Gross and "Silent Night" by Lechner. The numbers were well done and again displayed to the better advantage of tone and precision of rhythm.

Miss Launa Smith, a Kwanis scholarship freshman at MacMurray College, came three very lovely songs in her typically musical style.

Miss Smith, a voice student of Mr. Cleland, displayed a real maturity and beauty of musicianship and tone. She was accompanied at the piano by Mr. Cleland.

The program was brought to a close by the Senior High School Orchestra. This group is composed of the members of the string ensemble plus winds and percussion players from the high school band.

All In Three Years

As one saw and heard the program progress, it is difficult to realize that three years ago string activity in the junior and senior high schools was practically nil. Much credit must go to the local school administration for their foresightedness in seeing the necessity of enriching the aesthetic lives of the school children and also balancing out the musical offerings by providing string instruction for them.

And of course this program would not have at all been possible but for the dynamic leadership of Mr. Werner in his nurturing and the developing of it.

At present, Jacksonville High School has a very well balanced music program of instruction under the capable leadership of Mr. Werner, Mr. Lord, and Mr. Welch.

A great amount of credit for the financial success of this concert must go to the Jacksonville Parents' Association. This group is made up of parents and other interested persons of the junior and senior high school students who participate in the vocal and string groups. They sponsored the ticket sales for this concert under the capable leadership of Mr. Cleland.

Two solos, "I Will Pilot Thee" and "The Old Rugged Cross," were sung by Mrs. Agnes Haynes, accompanied by Mrs. Hersy Crain.

The many floral tributes were presented for Mrs. Edna Dadys, Mrs. Catherine Smith, Miss Esther Pond, Mrs. Emma Wilding, Mrs. Lloyd Bieber, Miss Beverly Hicks all of Jacksonville; Mrs. Evelyn Ashcraft, Rushville, and Miss Coyle Sweet, Quincy.

Interment was made in Franklin cemetery where military services were conducted by Waverly Post of the American Legion.

Casket bearers were Harold Long, Jacksonville; Dean Sims Prentiss, Donovan Sims, Ashland, Melvin Myers, Waverly; Hiram Kinman, Rushville; John Snyder, Bushville, and Wendell Riffey, Alton.

Announce Scott Committee For CROP Drive

WINCHESTER — Robert Reid Scott county Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) chairman has announced the following members of this committee for Scott county: Vice chairman, Henry Corrie; secretary, Rev. Roy Goodell; treasurer, Albert Herring and publicity chairman, Rev. William Seale.

Gifts given to CROP will be converted into surplus at the rate of 20-1. For example a gift worth $5.00 will become $100.00 worth of wheat or powdered milk, butter, cheese or cotton seed oil when it reaches the hungry refugee in Europe, the displaced Arab in the Near East and the war victims in Korea.

The Christian Rural Overseas Program has sent gifts of food to war-stricken and underdeveloped areas of the world since 1947.

The 1954 appeal is expected to increase the effectiveness of CROP's Christian mission with the help of America's surplus.
